

An innovative feature of the teaching methodology is the Daily Class - Room Questions sheet. PAGE is the pioneer in developing this technique that is effective for CBSE/MP BOARD preparation and is the hallmark of its coaching method. Before the lecture, a DCQ sheet consisting of 10 to 15 questions pertaining to the subject is given to each student. These questions are to be solved by the students followed by a discussion of the solutions. This enables the teacher to constantly monitor the student's performance. The course material effectively captures the essence of each concept and ensures thorough familiarization with the topic

Our Silent Features:

1. Well planned program of teaching and highly competitive environment
2. The courses are completed to the satisfaction of students and well in time. Sufficient time is slotted for making revisions, conduction of tests and doubt solving sessions.
3. Regular tests and their discussion is conducted so as to clarify any doubt left in the mind of students.
4. Regular feedback from students is taken to increase their level of satisfaction.
5. Monthly performance and attendance report is mailed for the reference of parents.
6. The courses are designed in such a way that study material is self-sufficient for the students and they do not have to look for any other
7. The classrooms are well lit and ventilated with comfortable seating arrangements, making the place an ideal one for study. Professors who have been teaching CBSE/MP BOARD for many years guide our students. They are not only teachers but are also friends, philosophers and guides and hence are easily approachable by any student

8. Doubts, if any, are clarified by the respective Professors. A student has to merely approach a Professor and ask the specific doubt. This one-to-one interaction goes a long way in the student gaining confidence on the subject and on the teacher to make him move ahead.
